

Dede Priest with Johnny Clark & The Outlaws (USA/ NL)

Dede Priest grew up in Texas and built an international name for herself by performing relentlessly over the years. This musician, with her impressive voice, guitar and violin, maneuvers between authentic Blues, (Southern) Rock, Soul, Jazz and Folk and recalls memories of Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Big Mama Thornton, Etta James, Don Sugarcane Harris, Freddie King and T-Bone Walker.

Johnny Clark & The Outlaws is a classic three-piece from the Netherlands with a sound and style rooted in the American Music Tradition.

Their cooperation leads to shows in which original songs deliver a loaded atmosphere where Blues, Punk-Rock, Folk and Country are mixed and create a modern day cross-over style.

"With Charisma and an impressive voice she spreads energy-loaded Delta-Blues."

"A Modern Day Blues Queen."
